

Dear all,

the updated schedule for the mock presentations on the Moodle page is now available, with the presentations scheduled for December 22. Please review the presentation list and group components and inform me promptly if any components are missing or no longer participating in the project.

Kindly upload your mock presentations to the Moodle section "Mock Presentations for Attending Students", in PDF format to prevent any compatibility or technical issues. The submission window will be open from Friday 15th to Friday 22nd at 12:00.

Additionally, I would like to take this occasion to remind you to feel free to reach out via email or schedule a Zoom meeting if you need further assistance with your projects.

Best regards,

Elisa
